

Green
Mountain
Energy®

SUPER EARTH

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 16, 2009

Contact:
Marci Grossman, GME, 602.694.8972 (cell)
Billie Rinaldi, Satori, 409 763 7022

MEDIA ADVISORY

PRE-EARTH DAY PHOTO OPPORTUNITY – TUESDAY, APRIL 21, 2009

VISUAL “EARTH DAY” STORY IN GALVESTON FEATURING KIDS, SOLAR PANELS, SUPER EARTH, AND TREE PLANTING

WHAT: Satori Elementary School in Galveston and Green Mountain Energy Company “Flip the Switch” for New Solar Array for School on Tuesday, April 21

Commemorating Earth Day 2009, which is April 22, 2009, Satori Elementary and Green Mountain will unveil the school’s first solar array – the first to power a Galveston school. There will also be a tree planting to commemorate Earth Day and spokespeople to do interviews offering “green living” tips in conjunction with Earth Day. This is the 39th Annual Earth Day.

WHO: John F. Thomas, PhD, President, Satori Parent Board; John Campbell, Satori Parent Board Alumnae; Joe Jaworski, Mayoral Candidate; Green Mountain VP Mark Lamping; Green Mountain’s “Super Earth” mascot; and students from Satori Elementary School

WHEN/WHERE: 2 p.m. April 21, 2008, Satori Elementary School which is located near downtown Galveston at 2503 Sealy St.

SCHEDULE

- | | Remarks |
|----------------|---|
| - 2 -2:15 p.m. | |
| - 2:15 p.m. | Crews install the final solar panel, completing the solar array system |
| - 2:20 pm. | Students from Satori Elementary School join “Super Earth” to flip a giant oversized electric switch marking the beginning of solar power for Satori Elementary School and all Galveston schools |
| - 2:25 p.m. | “Super Earth” leads children in a celebratory parade |
| - 2:30 p.m. | A tree will be planted on the school grounds following the solar dedication. |
| - 2:45 p.m. | Reception and Refreshments |

One-on-one interviews at conclusion of event.